The Harrison Festival Society Presents: Carlos del Junco Saturday, March 17th 8:00pm

Blues man and harmonica master comes to Harrison
Simultaneously sophisticated and raw, his playing blurs the boundaries between blues and jazz. The emphasis is on blues, but Carlos and his band are not afraid to merrily traipse off in other directions delivering a seamless fusion of New Orleans second line grooves, swing, Latin, hip-hop or ska melodies, to swampy roots rock.
